

ACKNOWLEDGMENT AND CONSENT REGARDING PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA (FOR STUDENTS TRAVELING ABROAD IN EU COUNTRIES)

Overview. This Acknowledgment and Consent form is required in conjunction with the CUNY INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL PARTICIPATION, WAIVER, AND EMERGENCY CONTACT FORM you have already completed in order to participate in a study abroad program, internship, research or service program, or other travel opportunity (whether for credit or not). You will be staying in a country subject to the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) adopted in the European Union (EU), which provides certain protections and rights with respect to your personal data. This data, which you have provided or will provide to CUNY, is necessary in order for CUNY to provide the services, planning and coordination required for this program, as well as to comply with obligations imposed by law.

General Principles. The personal data you have provided or will provide to CUNY or to third parties acting on CUNY's behalf will be handled in accordance with our policies and the policies and principles of the GDPR applicable while you are staying in the EU. Your personal data will be processed and collected only for purposes related to your program and access will be limited to persons requiring such information in order to provide required services, including third parties acting on CUNY's behalf. Your data will be kept only so long as is necessary or required by policy and law. We will maintain and process your data in a manner that assures its security and confidentiality.

Rights. Under GDPR, you have certain rights with respect to your personal data, including, among other rights, the right of access to your data; the right to correct inaccuracies in your data; the right to withdraw your consent; and the right to delete personal data if the collection of that data is no longer necessary to the purpose for which it was collected. [Full text of the GDPR].

Data Controller. Under GDPR, a Data Controller is the person or entity responsible for overseeing the processing of your data. For purposes of this study abroad program, the Data Controller is CUNY.

Sensitive Data. Data concerning your physical or mental health will be processed only for the purposes of protecting your safety or the safety of others, providing necessary healthcare, responding to an emergency, or complying with any applicable mandatory provision of law. Sensitive data may be communicated, in compliance with the principles above, to bodies and authorities, both public and private (such as hospitals, police offices, courts, security supervisors, insurance companies) only for the purposes relating to health and safety emergency and for the purposes of fulfilling obligations set forth by law.

I hereby consent to the use of my personal data in accordance with the provisions outlined above in order for me to participate in this program.

I also hereby waive any right to privacy or confidentiality regarding CUNY's reporting to the appropriate authorities at my home school and in the country where I am studying if I am seriously ill; suffer an injury; am the victim or perpetrator of harassment, whether on or off campus; am the victim or the perpetrator of sexual or gender-based misconduct and/or of criminal behavior, whether on or off campus; and I grant CUNY staff, faculty and administrators full authority to report to the appropriate authorities at my home school any and all such incidents, under applicable law (including but not limited to Title IX and Clery Act), whether or not it involves disciplinary action.
