

TITLE IV SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS APPEAL

STEPS TO FILE A TITLE IV APPEAL

Allow a minimum of two weeks to complete this appeal, keeping in mind that you must meet with an academic advisor and a counselor, write a personal statement, and gather documentation to complete the appeal.

- 1. Complete Sections 1 and 2 of this form.
- 2. Reach out to your assigned academic advisor and let them know that you would like to file a Title IV Appeal, attach this form with sections 1-2 completed. If you do not have an assigned advisor, please contact TitleIV@bmcc.cuny.edu, and be sure to include your full name and EMPLID (student ID) number.
- 3. Your advisor will meet with you to complete Sections 3 and 4. Together, you will determine the reasons for financial aid suspension, the semester for which you are appealing for aid and an academic plan that outlines how to meet the college's standards of academic progress.
- 4. Review the plan and the information the advisor filled into section 4 before signing the Student Certification section. Signing means that you agree to follow the plan.
- 5. Complete a personal statement (see Section 5) that includes steps for academic success (see Section 6). Please see the "Helpful Tips for Preparing Your Appeal" below prior to writing your statements.
- 6. When you have completed Steps 1-5, pease upload all your documents (the completed appeal form, personal statement, supporting documents) at BMCC APPEAL (you must use your CunyFirst login--firstname.lastname##@login.cuny.edu). You will be scheduled to meet with a Counselor. After that meeting, your counselor will attach their remarks and provide you with the final, completed form.
- 7. Review all sections of the form to ensure they have all been completed and signed appropriately. Ensure that you have attached all available documentation and your personal statement.
- 8. Submit the completed appeal file to Registrar@bmcc.cuny.edu before the deadline.

DEADLINE

Your appeal must be received by the submission deadline listed on the academic calendar for the current term on the BMCC website. To submit the appeal by the deadline, you must begin the process by contacting your advisor at least two weeks before the submission deadline. Aid cannot be reinstated retroactively for a prior term.

I have not met the college's minimum retention standard based on my cumulative GPA and have been placed on academic probation or special probation.
I have exceeded the maximum credit hour limit (that is, I have attempted more than 150% of the credits normally required for my degree).
My cumulative rate of completion is below the required pace of progression standard.
SECTION 4: ACADEMIC PLAN
Meet with an Academic Advisor and develop a reasonable and attainable financial aid academic plan outlining the courses you need to complete your program of study and a timeframe for completion. The plan should cover the semesters in which you intend to enroll within the current academic year. The emphasis should be on those courses you need to complete your program of study and further your academic objectives. It is not necessary that you complete your program within the current academic year as long as substantive progress toward program completion is achieved.

Approval of this appeal will restore the student's eligibility for receipt of federal financial assistance for one probationary semester. Continued eligibility for the remaining term(s) of the academic year will depend on the student successfully meeting the conditions of his or her financial aid academic plan. The student's progress will be monitored after the first term covered in this appeal to ensure all probationary conditions have been and continue to be met.

The results of the initial appeal and the subsequent compliance review(s) must be reported to the Office of Financial Aid so that students whose appeals have been approved and who are successfully meeting the conditions of their academic plan may continue to receive assistance.
Students who are found not to be in compliance with their academic plan after the initial probationary semester will be placed once again on financial aid suspension. These students may submit a new appeal form with an updated academic plan after semester grades are posted. This new appeal would have to be resubmitted to and approved by the Committee on Academic Standing in order for aid eligibility for the subsequent semester(s) to be restored.
